RATIFICATION.

HARRISON AND MORTON EN-DORSED MY CARSON REPUBLICANS.

Rousing Speeches by McClure, Bartine and Summerfield, Judge Leonard and Judge Wells

At a lit'le after 8 o'clock last vening Carson was ablaze with bonfires vibrating with martial music and smothered in American flags.

At 7 o'clock the roar of cannon saluted the nominees of the Chicago Convention, and as the echoes of the big gun resounded over the City everybody was astir to take a hand in the Ratification boom.

As the band marched down the street escorted by the Young Men's Republican Club they were greeted by rousing cheers from the sidewalk all along the fine.

The ratification was held under the auspices of the Club and the Young Men who are to vote for the first tune this year, occupied the two front rows of seats.

The galleries were filled with ladies and the hall began to receive its audience long before 8 o'clock.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

S. Summerfield called the meeting to order and the following Vice Presidents took seats on the stage: J. F. McCullough, S. C. Wright, D. A. Bender, Trenmor Coffin, S. L. Lee, Thos. B. Rickey, J. P. Woodbury, C. F. Bicknell, P. A. Doyle, A. Livingston, Chas. W. Friend, C. N. Noteware, John Frapp, Geo. Hark, Arthur Morris, S. P. Davis, Chas, H. Galusha, Clarence Parker, H. D. Thaxter, Chas. Stewart, Abram Cohn, Thos. H. Alley, George Fryer.

Mr. Summerfield opened the meeting with a well chosen speech and his sharp local hits brought down the house.

At the mention of the names of Harrison and Morton the building shock with applause.

HON. DAVID M'CLURE

of San Francisco, the speaker of the evening, told the audience that he had come to Nevada on the advice of his physicians, to rest his -Fred Douglass announces his threat and voice. He had been Shaw's Hot Springs had made a new man of him.

He gave an interesting history of the Harrison family who date back to Cromwell's time and had always been men of affairs and holding high positions both in Civil and Military

He reviewed his life as a soldier and citizen and a Senator and as he recounted his record the applause was long and hearty.

When he alluded to him as a Republican of Republicans and an American of Americans who would resent insults to the American flag" the audience shook the place with applause.

He outlined the issue of Protection and Free Trade in a masterly manner. At this hour it is impossible to give any more than a synopsis of the speech which when finished left his audience full of hearty enthusiasm for the nominees.

He came from Harrison's own

State and spoke by the card. The speech was bristling with telling points and nearly every sentence evoked a round of applause. Telling speeches were also made by Judge Leonard, Judge Wells, and H. F. Bartine all rousing Republican speeches to which the audience responded to in the heartiest manner. When the Republican Congressional nominee appeared he met a reception of which any man might well be proud.

He told the audience that Harrison would never go fishing on Decoration Day, that he would not loan $60,000,000, to bankers without interest, never bow to Wall street, never vetoe bnoest pension bills and never return 5000 Confederate battle flags. This point was greeted with prolonged cheering.

The meeting closed with three cheers for Harrison and Morton. David McClure, H. F. Bartine and the Young Men's Club.

-The hot weather is coming on in dead earnest now.

THE SEWS.

Outside of San Francisco.

Tucson, Jane 25 .- The nomination of Harrison has c eated a blaze of enthusiasm here. The Republicans are offering bers, someof which are being taken. Arrangements are being made to ratify the plank in the platform, as home rule in the territories is commended by the entire press of the Territory.

YREKA, June 25.-Harrison's nomination gives genera' satisfaction The Republicans are firing guns and there is a general jubilee.

SACRAMENTO, June 25 .- Harrison's nomination is well received here, and twenty-one guns have been fired on the Capitol-grounds in honor of the Republican nominee and the next President.

INDEPENDENCE, Cal., June 25 .-The nomination caused little excitement. Though unexpected, it gives general satisfaction. Blaine was the first choice, but Harrison is preferred to Sherman. There is a general feeling of confidence in Harrison's ability and his friendliness to the Pacific Coast.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, June 25 .-The nomination of Harrison met with the wildest enthusiasm, and relieves the intense anxiety of the past week. Harrison all along has been the favorite with the Republicans in this county. A grand ratification meeting will be held to-morrow night.

MARYSVILLE, June 25 .- The nomination of Harrison was received here by the Republicans with general favor, though disappointment is expressed that Blaine was not chosen. It is thought that Harrison will prove a strong candidate. The Democrats speak of him with respect.

-Nevada, Cal. June 25 .- The announcement of Harrison's nomination has created much disappointment, Blaine was the choice. Los ANGELES, June 25-Republicans here are enthusiastic over the nominations of Harrison and Morton. It is every where looked upon as a winning ticket.

The Troubadors.

The plot is of the very brightest kind, being the simple tale of three New York salesmen and one saleslady, Dolly Dashwood, (Nellie Mc-Henry), who spend their vacation on the farm of a very hard-hearted Jersey farmer, through whom an amusing series of events transpire on the farm and in a rickety flat. whither the salesmen go when their an accident in a game of blind man's buff. The piece was very prettily set on the stage, the farm house and the Franklin flats being as truly characteristic of life in Jersey and New York as could well be imagined .- N. Y. World.

The Sweeny Building.

The Sweeny building is now fluished, or so nearly so, that it need not take long for the stores to be occupied.

It was done under the supervision of Mr. Richard Ryland, of Reno. John Logan did the brick work, Mose Catlin the carpenter work and L. C. Hawk the plastering.

Everything about the building has been done in a substantial and workmanlike manner, and the structure is a credit to the builders as well as to the city.

New Hose Cart.

The Warren's received their new nose cart vesterday. It is a beauty and manufactured by the California Fire Apparatus Company of San Francisco. It is the latest thing in hose carts and painted American colors, red white and blue.
